PLAN STERNER MEASURES

Chief of Staff of Marshal Foch Arrives in Occupied Area to Confer on Additional Steps to Force Germans to Comply With Demands.

By Associated Press.
DUISSELDORF, Jan. 25.—The rail road strike has spread with great rapidity since the mine directors were fined at Mayence, and today it was effective over the greater part of the Ruhr. No passenger trains left Dusseldorf north, south or east after 6 o'clock this morning.

Service to Essen was completely interrupted.

General Weygand, chief of the staff of Marshal Foch, arrived from Paris today and will confer with General DeGoutte to consider sterner measures against the Germans.

"France is here to stay until she gets complete satisfaction from Germany," said M. LeRocquer, minister of public works, who accompanied General Weygand.

The measures were to be considered in view of a "lengthy occupation of the Ruhr," it was said.

"Germany thinks her policy of resistance and defiance will make France deviate one jot from her resolution to bring the German government to terms and collect reparations that she sadly mistakes," said M. LeRocquer to the correspondent on his arrival.

"France is here to stay until she gets complete satisfaction from Germany. There can be no desire on our part to retreat. If Germany can stand this situation created by herself we likewise can."

Two trains of foodstuffs from Holland represented the only movement by rail into the interior of the Ruhr during the morning.

In addition to the telegraph and telephone employees of the postal service informed General Devignies to-day that the operators would strike at midnight. The French commander replied with the threat that the leaders would be sent to jail.

The mobile crew of telegraphers which customarily followed President Foch on his official tours has arrived in Dusseldorf and is ready to take over the service in event of the strike.

Bogus $10 Notes Passed At Mt. Pleasant Store

Special to The Courier.
MOUNT PLEASANT, Jan. 25.—Mount Pleasant has been flooded with counterfeit $10 notes, estimated at $20,000, silver certificates. They bear the likeness of Andrew Jackson.

One of the bills was received at the store of M. Marron & Sons from a woman, in part payment for an overcoat. The discovery that it was bogus was made after it had been exchanged at the Peoples Bank.

A third note came into the possession of M. Michelson, the jeweler, at the "Diamond Tailor." The tailor said he had received money at the Peoples Bank.

SUCCESS REWARD OF THE PROBLEM SOLVING THINKER

With one of the largest audiences ever present at an illustration session, the second half of the fourth annual combined meeting of the Connellsville and Dunbar Township School districts opened this morning. The program will continue today, tomorrow and Saturday.

Dr. Jessie Hays White, head of the Department of Psychology of the University of Pittsburgh, gave one of the best addresses he has ever made before a local audience. He is well-known to the teachers here, having appeared at a number of times, and will speak at each session of the three-day program.

His subject this morning was "The Problem Solving Attitude." He said everybody thinks that they can't help it.

"However," he explained, "the few who attain distinction can say it was due to their finding the problem."

He said there are four types of thinking and listed them as follows:

First, the spontaneous thinking, the kind which everyone does.

Second, the rationalized thinking, the kind which causes a person to get a book and read carefully to secure new thoughts or to get an interview with someone of authority, but the kind which is done in an easy chair before a fire, when the mind is allowed freedom of many thoughts.

The second type is used in making practical decisions. Such thinking is necessary, the psychologist said, but no one is more educated by making them. One hundred such decisions come up in a day, he declared.

He described the third as rationalizing type of thinking. It is the type people do most of, he said. It is whereby a person defends the better he is survived by five children.

Mrs. Isabelle Whipple of Uniontown, wife of George Whipple, attorney general, was present.

He said there are two types of thinking:

When Baby Complains.

There are many ways a baby has of expressing any pain or irregularity or distress from its normal condition of health and happiness. A short sharp cry, a prolonged irritated cry, restlessness, a constant turning of the head or of the whole body, fretful. In these and other ways tell you there is something wrong. Most mothers know that a distressed baby comes on before it acts naturally are the cause of most of baby's sufferings. A call for the doctor is the first thought, but in the event of any delay there should be ready at hand a safe remedy such as Fleischner's Castorina.

Castorina has been used for baby's ailments for over 30 years and has merited the good will of the family physician in a measure not equaled by any other baby's medicine due to its harmlessness and the good results achieved.

And remember that Castorina is essentially a baby's remedy and not a cure-all for every member of the family. What might help you is too often dangerous when given to a babe.

Castorina always bears the signature of MAKING SENTIMENT FOR ROAD UNANIMOUS.

The unanimity with which members of the Riverton Club, Chamber of Commerce and the Young Highway Automobile Club are getting behind the Connellsville-to-Parmington road project, together with similar action by persons residing along the line of the proposed improvement in the mountain townships, are examples in willing and hearty cooperation which residents of Connellsville and vicinity cannot refuse to follow if they make any protest whatever to being public spirited citizens.

The completion of this enterprise will bring one of the most rapidly developing sections of the county into close and intimate touch with Connellsville, and result in such direct and mutual benefits to the people of both the mountain townships and the city, that any person who withdraws their active support of and sympathy with the movement will be standing in the way of their own material advancement and interests. It is being so generally recognized it is safe to say that only a very inconsiderable number, and each of little consequence to the economy of things we fail to take step with the active boosters.

The time-worn adage "All things come to him who waits" don't function in the case of securing highway improvements, at least such has not been the experience of any section of Fayette county where improved roads have been built. The people who have waited the longest while they waited are those who have been rewarded. So many projects of this kind are before the State Highway Department, and the county commissioners that both organizations have to be impressed by an almost overwhelming display of interest on part of the prospective beneficiaries of the improvements before a decision is reached as to which several projects shall be undertaken first. This statement does not affect whatever on either the highway department or the county commissioners. It merely records a fact, which the boosters of road projects have found to exist under the present policy and practice in dealing with such matters.

If therefore the people who will be advantaged in any way by the completion of the Connellsville-to-Parmington road give proof of their interest in such form that the sentiment is shown to be unmistakably and with complete unanimity in favor of going ahead with this enterprise as speedily as possible there is infinitely greater probability of something being done than there would be if we were to continue a policy of "watchful waiting."

To crystallize this sentiment and give volume and effect to its expression is the object of the Connellsville-to-Parmington Good Roads League, in which the local boosting organizations are already cooperating vigorously. It's up to all other citizens to make this cooperation so complete that there can be no doubt as to the result.

The failure to locate any relatives of the late Jacob Kuhn suggests the inquiries. Did the people of Connellsville do all they might have done to show this harmless but interesting character who lived a lonely life among us, that he was not without friends? Are we doing no more for others similarly circumstanced to show them that our charity and neighborliness really do begin at home?

Some impressionable mislusters may have their sympathies with the Ku Klux Klan stimulated by a parade of hooded knights down the aisle to the collection plate, but to most people this form of display is but a cheap method of spreading propaganda in favor of the "invisible empire."

It is becoming a fad to keep your feet these slippery mornings.

How He Cured His Rupture

Old sea Captain Cured His Own Rupture. After Doctors Said "Operate or Death."

Mr. Kennedy and Rock, Seat First. Captain Collins sailed the seas for many years; then he sustained a bad double "spine" that soon forced him to not only remain ashore, but kept him bedridden for years. No doctor could find a cure. Finally, he was assured that he must either submit to a dangerous and abhorrent operation or die. He did neither! He cured himself instead.

Captain Collins made a study of himself, of his condition—and at last hit upon a simple and painless method that can quickly make him a well, strong, vigorous and happy man.

Anyone can use the same method. It's simple, easy, safe and inexpensive.

Buy a copy of the book in the book store. The Captain Collins book, telling all about how he cured himself, and anyone may follow his treatment in full, without any trouble. Has He Found a Cure for Asthma?

Simple Prescription Gives Instant Relief; Makes Breathing Easy.

In New England, where bronchial asthma is one of the most prevalent diseases, there are no cures, yet remarkably successful results are being reported following the use of a new form of treatment known as Oxydase, physical therapy.

Oxydase is a human but powerful combination of curative essential oils concentrated and compressed into a small tablet. One of these tablets is always dissolved before going to bed to have the effect of releasing the muscular constriction of the bronchial tubes, opening up the air passages and making breathing easier.

This enables the patient to breathe easily and naturally while lying down and to get a comfortable night's sleep.

Interest has been shown that local druggists, including A. A. Clarke, have secured a small supply and state that they are authorized to sell them. In this way, the first package of Oxydase can never fail to give relief. Oxydase is pleasant to take, contains no harmful, habit-forming drugs and is not expensive. This makes their cost an easy matter. Advertisement.

Air goes Eczema

Peterson's Ointment

"One day a druggist told me," says Peterson, "that Peterson's Ointment was the best remedy he sold for eczema. But you'll never make any money on it," he added, "because it heals so quickly that only a little ointment is used." All druggists, 35c, 60c, $1.00, $2.50, $5.00—Advertisement.

Building Exposition to Stimulate Spring Trade

The spring will be ushered in with a live building and food show at the Armory February 12 to 17, inclusive. The show will contain exhibits of interest to all who contemplate building or equipping a home or any part thereof this spring. The leading firms of the city are to be represented in this drive to open up spring business in a big way.

This year's exposition is to be a decided innovation in many ways. There will be a musical program every evening. There will be a gigantic fashion show. This feature alone insure a success for the venture.

But the management has limited the displays to one of a kind and is insisting that the one chosen be the very best available. So you will find something new at every one of the thirty odd booths. There will be lumber, brick, plumbing, electric fixtures, heating plants, electric appliances, furniture, crockery, draperies, floor coverings, etc., in the home building show and ice cream, candy, bakery products, groceries, etc., in the pure food expositions. This should be a treat to Connellsville folk as the management is putting out every effort to offer a bigger, better show than has ever been staged locally.

Ray Armstrong has been engaged as personal representative of the management and will be in the city until after the completion of the show giving the details of the arrangement.

the same care that made the big shows in Akron, Ohio, and Cleveland as well as the Detroit such splendid successes. In addition to the plans before mentioned for the special entertainment there will be a fine program of entertaining speakers. Subjects and speakers will be announced soon.

The exposition is put on by Connellsville's best for the benefit of the local trade situation and therefore the money usually spent in admission charges is borne by the exhibitors and the public is given the big style show which will exhibit the latest and most complete assemblage of spring fashions.

This big show alone, which is given through the courtesy of Rosenbaum Bros., Connellsville's new and progressive store, offers a treat for which there would normally be a real admission. The show will be staged on an elevated runway, nine feet in the air so that everyone will have a clear vision unobstructed by those in front or behind. Every foot of the promenade is easily visible from any part of the big hall.

The show will last an entire week every evening from 7:30 to 11 o'clock and all Saturday afternoon. Too the musical program will give a fine treat to the attendees. The dates February 19th to 24th inclusive are worth remembering and reserving.

MOTHER! MOVE CHILD'S BOWELS

"California Fig Syrup" is Child's Best Laxative

Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup." If the little tongue is coated, or if your child is listless, cross, feverish, full of cold, or has colic, a teaspoonful will never fail to open the bowels. In a few hours you can see for yourself how thoroughly it works all the constipation poison, sour bile and waste from the tenor, little bowel and gives you a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup" handy. They know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother!

You must say "California" or you may get an imitation syrup.—Advertisement.

If Stomach is Sour, Food Won't Digest

No stomach filled with sour poisons can digest food. Everything you eat turns into more poison and gas, making you nervous and weak. Simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adlerika, expels all your poisons and gas from both upper and lower bowel, removes foul, decaying food-matter you never thought was in your system which caused sour and gassy stomach. Adlerika is excellent to guard against appendicitis. A

Catarrh Of the Stomach Is Dangerous

"Thousands Have It and Don't Know It," says Physician. Frequently Mistaken For Indigestion. How To Recognize and Treat.

Thousands of people suffer more or less constantly from fever, coated tongue, bad breath, sour, burning stomach, frequent vomiting, rumbling in stomach, bitter eructations, gas, wind and stomach trouble and cutaneous eruptions. "The cause of their trouble is due to gastric catarrh of the stomach," writes a New York physician.

Catarrh of the stomach is dangerous because the mucous membrane of the stomach is thickened and coating of phlegm covers the surface so that the digestive fluids cannot mix with the food. Catarrh of the stomach soon breeds deadly disease in the fermented, unassimilated food. The blood is polluted and carries the infection throughout the body. Gastric catarrh is apt to form and frequently an ulcer is the first sign of deadly cancer.

In case of the stomach a good and safe treatment is to take before meals a teaspoonful of pure Biasured Magnesia in half a glass of hot water as hot as you can comfortably drink. It will neutralize any excess acid in the stomach walls and draw the blood to the stomach while the Biasured Magnesia is an excellent solvent for mucus and increases the efficiency of the digestive organs. Biasured Magnesia will serve as a powerful but harmless antacid which will neutralize any excess acid that may be in your stomach and remove the food particles. Take Biasured Magnesia without distress of any kind should soon follow. Biasured Magnesia is not a laxative, it is astringent and should not be taken unless obtained from any good druggist. Don't confuse Biasured Magnesia with other forms of magnesia, milk of magnesia, etc. Biasured Magnesia is the Biasured form (powder or tablet), especially prepared for this purpose.—Advertisement.

DARKEN GRAY HAIR, LOOK YOUNG, PRETTY

Sage Tea and Sulphur Darkens So Naturally That Nobody Can Tell

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful and thousands of women and men who value that even consider this beautiful shade of hairlessness is so attractive, use our old time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.—Advertisement.

Kidney Trouble Causes Lumbago.

"A lameness followed me for sometime, and I felt that it was caused from kidney trouble. One bottle of Feiley Kidney Pill had the desired effect," writes H. R. Arkle, South Barre, Vermont. Backache, rheumatism, dull headache, too frequent or burning urination are symptoms of Kidney and Bladder trouble. Disordered kidneys require prompt treatment. Neglect causes serious complications. Polley Kidney Pill gives instant relief.—Advertisement.

COKERS EASILY DEFEAT
EAST HUNTINGDON TWP.
WITH SECOND STRING

The Connellsville High School defeated the East Huntingdon Township High team here last night, 49-24. The Cokers opened the game with reserves and did not have a first string man in the contest. Cunningham and Wilhelm, who rank close to the Varsity players, were given the places last night.

The first team was saved for the game tomorrow night with Scottdale and the following evening with Greensburg. However, the Coker team last night had a snappy offense and the fact that the visitors scored only three baskets speaks for the defense. Niland showed up well in his position as foul shooter.

The line-up—Connellsville—42. E. Huntingdon—24. Cunningham F. Koval Noland F. Rouch Hule C. Brooks George G. Orvez Wilhelm G. Vance Substitutions—Wills for Cunningham, May for Niland, Deegan for George, O'Donnell for Wilhelm, Leighty for Vance.

Field goals—Cunningham 7, Hule 6, Niland 2, Wilhelm 2, May, O'Donnell, Kova, Orvez, Vance.

Foul goals—Niland, 11 out of 15; Rovits, 14 out of 24; Koval, 3 out of 5; Brooks, 1 out of 2.

Referee—Whit.

In the preliminary game the Connellsville girls defeated the Scottdale High girls, 27-22. An extra period was necessary to determine the final result but the Orange and Black crew speeded up and took the lead.

BUSINESS IMPROVING.

RHEUMATISM LEAVES YOU FOREVER

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poisons Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours

Twenty-four hours distinguishes this country as authority to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if a full pint bottle of Alenru, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not show the way to stop the pain, then he is not fit to live. He who dares to do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Alenru has been tested by many thousands and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and prolonged and where no one was helpless.

Mrs. James H. Allen of Rochester, N.Y., the discoverer of Alenru, who for many years suffered from the disease, now uses the Alenru and can assure you that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Alenru definitely conquers this worst of all diseases. It is the only drug that can guarantee it above in every instance. Connellsville Drug Co. and C. Roy Hotsel can supply you.—Advertisement—23-Jan-21-wd.

WARE OF DRUGS

All Authorities Advise Caution in Use of Preparations Liable to Contain Powerful Drugs.

Never drug your system to relieve or prevents colds, grippe or "flu." Drugs are liable to affect the nervous system or weaken the heart.

Hot medicinal tea is now recommended by many physicians because it is best for the human system, acts quickly on the bowel and intestines by administration, but exceeds poisonous properties than usual to those who have physician's resistance. Just plain, refreshing, healthful herbs from nature, that is why millions are now using Bulgarian Herb Tea to relieve and break up bad colds, and also keep the poisons flushed from the system. Many physicians now prescribe Bulgarian Herb Tea, and your druggist can honestly recommend it.—Advertisement.

Avoid Sore Throat and Tonsillitis

Keep Tonsils Clean By Using Mu-Col Twice Daily.

The tonsils should be cleaned each day says authority. Infected tonsils cause mouth breathing, enlarged neck glands, frequent sore throat and tonsillitis, bad breath and oftentimes deafness.

Excellent results have been obtained from the use of Mu-Col, a pleasant, concentrated, economical antiseptic with which the tonsils may be made and used at body temperature. Get a bottle today. Keep it handy. Remember the name, Mu-Col. Connellsville Drug Co. and every up-to-date drug store can supply you.—Advertisement.

She ran to the window and called recklessly:

"Billy!" said William Spencer looked towards her, glanced quickly left and right to see if the coast was clear, and hurried to join Almee. He stepped in through the window.

"Billy," said Almee, "this is my Cousin Alexander. And he's—he knows all about it. It seems this is our finish, Billy."

The two men turned and faced each other.

CHAPTER XVI

"They Must Be Told." Mr. Lambe's serious eyes had become hard and penetrating as a pair of crystal lenses. They gave the impression of piercing the exterior of the man before him, and reading his mind. Alexander looked at that moment, rather like an inquisitor of Torquemada's court.

"You are Mr. William Spencer?" said Alexander icily.

"That's so. You don't know me? I guess you wouldn't. But I remember you very well, though I never connected your name till now," said Billy calmly.

"We're chaplains to the Tenth Rutlands, in 1918. Came from China to join 'em, I heard."

Mr. Lambe was silent.

"I was a sub in the Ninety-seventh of the Line, lying next the British Sharpshooter division at Arras," added Billy. "I remember you because you brought in six wounded who got left after the raid on the pillboxes. Two of them were ours. You got the military brass."

Almee stared at Alexander in blank amazement.

"That will do," interrupted Mr. Lambe impatiently. "We are not dealing with the war. Do you realize?" he said in his grimdest tone. "the position in which you have placed this lady?"

Billy looked straight at him.

"You are Miss Scroope's cousin?" he said quietly, "and a person. I guess I'll take lying down, from you, anything you choose to say or do. Of course I realize it. That's why I'm here. I've been a fool. I didn't seem to know. But I ought to have known."

He sighed.

"Things are so different, where I belong. An' they were different in France—mighty different. But that's no excuse. I wish I'd broken my neck before I did such a fool thing. And here we are in the soup. I don't matter. And you don't matter either, person. All that matters is Miss Scroope. Get me?"

"Come here," said Alexander.

He took Billy by the arm, led him to the window, and turned him so that the sun shone full on his face. Mr. Lambe looked at Billy for some moments in silence, with a peculiar intensity.

"Mr. Spencer," said Alexander releasing him, "I will see you presently. I shall have something to say to you. For the moment, leave me with my cousin. And go quickly."

Billy nodded. He turned to Almee with a smile.

"Don't you worry," he said quietly, "the padre's white."

Billy disappeared with extreme suddenness through the window. Alexander came slowly up to Almee.

"That young man," he said, "has the heart of a child. It is a good thing to have. And rare, at his age. That does not alter the fact that your situation is dangerous, and even terrible. My decision is final," he said earnestly. "There is but one thing to do. The plain, honest course. And Erythea must be sent off immediately. Then you will be safe."

"And I repeat it's impossible," returned Almee quickly. "Can't you see? You understand. And George understands. But there's one who will never understand. My father. He doesn't belong to our time. He'll consider only one thing—that his daughter has been disgraced before all the country. Her name a by-word among

Keep you fit

It's secret without her consent—for to utter one word that may affect her reputation. But what will come of it?

"Ah!" said Almee eagerly. "you need know nothing at all. Whatever happens, I'll keep you out of it."

"On the contrary! I implore you whatever difficulty arises, to come to me. I—I will do all I can." He gulped.

"I want to help you, Almee."

"Alexander," she cried breathlessly, "I am sorry I knocked you down!"

The next moment she had fled through the window.

the rabbit. That's how he'll take it. It will simply be Dad's finish."

Almee sniffed miserably. "I never thought about it. But George told me what it would mean to my father. And she's right. You don't know Dad."

Alexander had turned rather white. He walked to the door and back, in some agitation.

"It is some years since I have seen your father. But I know him very well. And I believe you are right. This would be a heavy blow to him. But—it has got to be faced."

"And I will not let Dad face it," said Almee hotly. "I don't care, for myself. But I'm not going to have him made miserable—for all the parts in the country!"

"You have no choice. You do not suppose for a moment this thing can be concealed and overcome?"

Almee turned to him with supreme confidence.

"Of course I do. Billy will see it through!" she said triumphantly.

Alexander gasped. "The whole thing is known to me—my position is impossible," he said. "I should be abetting a lie."

"There's no need for you to do anything at all. Nobody wanted you to be born in Alexander. The secret is mine, not yours. Go to Aunt Erythea, 'Oh, I'm not complaining—I can see that you must. Only you'll do it without my sanction. Go to her, and tell her all you know about me."

Alexander groaned. For awhile he was silent. The perspiration stood on his forehead. The anguish in his face was so plain that even Almee felt compassion.

Alexander sighed aloud. "I shall keep silence," he said. "It is impossible for me to betray a woman."

Stabbed by Neuritis

Many people suffer attacks by this arch-nemesis commonly called "nerve inflammation." The first warning is usually a sharp, stabbing pain, which may last a few moments or hours, or even days. You may feel it in the shoulder, neck, forearm, small of the back, or down the thigh and leg, and in the head, particularly in the region of the brain, resulting in numbness, tingling, or heat, which often end in mortification.

No matter where you have nerve pain or what caused them, you can get quick relief with the use of Marhsroot. Just apply a poultice over the part that hurts, and in a few minutes the pain will be gone.

Try Marhsroot. Through the power of the skin, it has a soothing, healing effect upon the diseased nerves gradually helping to restore them to healthy condition.

Don't suffer any longer. Price 50c. Order from Dr. Carey, 118 West Crawford Avenue, Connellsville, Pa.

How Backache and Periodic Pains Yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Dear N. Y.—Every month my blood would go to my head and I would have violent pains in my backache and pains that could not be relieved.

At 11 o'clock I could not get to sleep and nothing seemed to do me any good. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it relieved me.

I had only taken two bottles when I began to feel better and my back did not hurt me nor my head at all. I called a new woman. The Vegetable Compound is a good product and I will always recommend it.

Mrs. Kelley adds her Testimony

Dear N. Y.—I read your advertisement in the paper and my husband induced me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

It relieved my pain in a week. I was so weak at first I could not walk at times. Now I can do my house work and help my husband out too. I am willing to say it is the best thing you think it will be to others. Mrs. Kelley
